POETRY.

THEY CHARGE. Mother! watch those little feet, On the turf so lightly treading;

Little feet are never still; Devious paths they oft are tracing;

Watch thy charge with loving care; Point out its devious errand;

With an earnest prayer, Show the way to heaven's portals;

To the lowest day of June, With its wealth of leafy splendor;

Heard all agree with delight, 'Twas the gambled apple-trees are playing;

Earthquakes.

Callao.—Valparaiso correspondence of the Panama Star, dated September 24, has the following:

It seems that this Republic is also coming in its share of earthquakes, although nothing like so severe as in the case of countries situated daily in the South of Peru.
